

COMPANY: Liberty Media Corporation

JOB TITLE: Analyst
Corporate Development and Investor Relations
Departments (Full-time)

LOCATION: Englewood, CO

DEADLINE FOR APPLICATION: Open

We are seeking an Analyst to support the Corporate Development and Investor Relations teams.

Liberty Media, located in the Meridian office park area in south Denver, is a dynamic organization that owns a broad range of media, communications, and entertainment businesses and investments. Liberty Interactive Corporation is also managed by the team at Liberty Media and it owns a broad array of video retail, eCommerce, and other businesses and investments. Liberty Media offers a competitive salary and excellent benefits.

The Internet, digital content, and new devices are transforming traditional media businesses. In response, we are rapidly adding interactive media businesses to our large portfolio of media, interactive, and eCommerce investments and businesses. Liberty makes large and small investments in the online gaming, eCommerce, TV programming and mobile telephony industries. We believe that we can add value to these companies by capitalizing on synergies among our more traditional media assets in television programming, TV home shopping, and media distribution. The person we hire should be able to generate ideas, identify innovations and innovators in the consumer internet industry, develop reasoned and articulated recommendations to help us reach our business objectives, and provide analytical support and financial/valuation modeling.

Job Description

The role of the Analyst is to provide, under the supervision of the executives in the Corporate Development and Investor Relations Departments, insights and assessments relating to opportunities that Liberty Media/Liberty Interactive should pursue financially or operationally. The Analyst will assist in identifying opportunities through observation and exploration, will generate well-articulated conclusions and recommendations, and will provide valuation, analytical and transaction support to the Corporate Development and Investor Relations team as needed. The successful candidate will prepare presentations on potential investment opportunities, and will also conduct industry research and assist in the negotiations of certain transactions. Additionally, they will engage in projects that require them to analyze and interpret financial statements, prepare financial/valuation models and assist in the development of investor presentations and conferences.

Skills/Qualifications

Essential skills/qualifications include:

- Highly internet/web-savvy and early adopter of Internet-based services (i.e., Facebook, Twitter, Mint, etc).
- Demonstrated proficiency in analytical thinking including the ability to understand and adjust business plans and develop projections in fast growing markets.
- Excellent interpersonal skills and demonstrated ability to work with others.
- Demonstrated project management capabilities, including self-directedness and initiative.
- Excellent research capabilities and demonstrated ability to synthesize and summarize industry research.
- Ability to conduct rigorous financial modeling and analysis. Significant experience with Excel a plus.
- Must have a record of success and top-tier achievement in prior work and education experiences.
- Bachelor's Degree. Applicant will have some experience in Finance, Business Administration, Accounting or an equivalent field through either a major or extracurricular/internship experience.

Preferred Qualifications:

- Graduate of a top 20 business school program with a 3.5 or higher GPA
- Familiarity and prior experience with finance, venture capital, accounting, media industry, online gaming, eCommerce, mobile, and technology marketplace a plus.
- Familiarity with and the ability to analyze and interpret financial statements a plus
- Proficiency in PowerPoint

To apply for this position, please email your resume and qualifications to our Corporate Development/Investor Relations Department at jobposting62@libertymedia.com. No phone calls please.

Liberty Media is an equal opportunity and drug-free workplace employers.